MANIFESTO

Since the Ancient times the words Filia (friendship) and Filos (friend) were two of the most respected attributes among people.

It was an honor to be the friend of a king, of the gods, of the braves. Out of the word Filia comes one of the pillars of Greek civilization. The friend of the visitors. The sacred relationship between the host and the traveler, the visitor, the stranger.

The famous Greek Hospitality is a story that routes back in the very essence of the ancient Greek philosophy.
